Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the DESERT TORTOISE COUNCIL.

Article II - Mission and Objectives

Section 1. The mission of the Desert Tortoise Council (Council) is to assure the perpetual survival of viable populations of desert tortoises represented throughout their historical ranges. Desert tortoises, for the purposes of the Council, include the tortoise species complex that occurs in the southwestern United States and in Mexico, currently referred to as Gopherus agassizii, Gopherus morafkai, and Gopherus evgoodei.

Section 2. The objectives of the Council are:

- b. To serve in a professional advisory manner on matters involving management, conservation, and protection of desert tortoises and their habitats;
- c. To support, and be an advocate of, such measures as will contribute to ensuring the continued survival of desert tortoises and the maintenance of their habitats in a natural condition;
- d. To stimulate and encourage studies on the ecology, biology, management, and protection of desert tortoises;
- e. To gather and disseminate information on desert tortoises and their habitats, and to be an advocate of science-based management;
- f. To maintain active public information and conservation education programs;
- g. To support conservation actions for the protection of other imperiled tortoises, turtles, and ecosystems, as appropriate; and
- h. To commend outstanding action and dedication by individuals and organizations promoting the mission and objectives of the Council.

Article III – Membership

Section 1. Any person or organization with an interest in desert tortoises or desert tortoise conservation shall be eligible for membership in the Council upon submission of membership form and payment of dues. No professional affiliation is required.

Section 2. The Desert Tortoise Council does not discriminate against any person on the basis of gender, sexual orientation, marital status, creed, religion, race, color, national origin, age, economic status, disability, organizational affiliation, or any other physical, social, or economic factors.

Section 3. The Board of Directors (Board) shall set the rates and categories of dues for membership, and members shall pay the specified dues required of active members of the Council.

Section 4. Complementary memberships of a specific duration may be granted at the discretion of the Board.

Section 5. Any membership may be terminated by resignation.

Section 6. The Board reserves the right to reject the application, or terminate the membership, of any party for cause, if such rejection is not in violation of any existing laws or rules affecting exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3).

Article IV - Board of Directors

Section 1. The business of the Council shall be managed by the Board, which shall be composed of not less than nine or more than twenty active members of the Council. Though there are seven elected offices, only six officers would serve at any time due to two alternating positions of Chairperson-elect and Past Chairperson; there may be up to fourteen Board Members at Large. The Chairperson shall be the presiding officer of the Board.

Section 2. Membership on the Board shall reflect the diversity of the general membership of the Council, insofar as feasible. In addition, the Board shall appoint new members that broaden the Board's range of competencies and backgrounds; assure an appropriate continuity and turnover of Board membership; and provide that new Board members will be willing to accept officer roles and tasks needed to support the Council and its functions.

Section 3. The Board shall meet a minimum of three times a year, and as needed. The Annual Business Meeting shall be held in conjunction with the Annual Symposium. Meetings of the Board shall be convened by the Chairperson or other elected officer as delegated by the Chairperson. The Board may make such rules and regulations concerning its meetings as it may deem necessary.

Section 4. For the Board to take an action that requires a vote, a minimum of a 30-day notice of a meeting of the Board during which the vote will occur must be provided to all members of the Board. If less than 30 days' notice is provided (e.g., votes conducted by electronic mail), the total number of Board members shall be applied to determine a majority vote and would equal a minimum of half the number of Board members plus one. For Board actions to be considered via electronic mail, all Board Members shall be copied in the electronic communications.

Each Member of the Board shall have one vote. Voting may occur at meetings of the Board or electronically via electronic mail discussions outside of formal noticed Board meetings. For a member of the Board to cast a vote, the member must be a participant in the discussion of that item, either in person or through various means of electronic or telecommunication. Members of the Board may recuse themselves from any deliberation or vote on decisions regarding individual issues or actions under consideration by the Board or the Council. The names of individuals who have recused themselves shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

A quorum, the minimum number of Board members required for voting at noticed Board meetings, is defined as half of the total number of current members of the Board plus one (e.g., a quorum of 8 is required for total Board membership of 14 or 15). For a vote to pass at a noticed Board meeting, either in person or virtual, a majority of the voting members present must approve the motion (e.g., an 8-person quorum requires a minimum of five votes to the affirmative; recusal and abstaining would not be included in tallying the final vote). For voting via electronic mail or at any ad hoc meeting of the Board (in person or virtual), the quorum is defined based on the total number of Board Members; for a vote to pass requires a majority vote as determined by the total number of Board members.

Section 5. Any action of the Board may be overridden by a two-thirds majority vote of the attending membership of the Council at the Annual Business Meeting, or any Special Meeting convened in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws, with a 30-day advance notice of the issue to the general membership. For such a vote to occur requires a minimum of twenty active Council members that includes at least a quorum of Board members, and a minimum number of non-Board members equal to the quorum of the Board.

Section 6. The Board shall have control and management of the affairs and business of the Council. Expenditures of the funds of the Council shall be by approval of the Board based on a majority vote. The Board is authorized to act for the Council between Annual Business Meetings, and the Board shall report its actions taken during the previous year to the members of the Council at the Annual Business Meeting.
